4. Item to be Amended:

CLAIMS

5. Subject Matter of Amendment

The words (expression) "a functional sequence" which appears on Claim 1 should be amended as "an insertion sequence for specifically inserting a sequence of interest and an insulator sequence". The words (expression) "a functional sequence" which appears on Claim 2 should be amended as "an insertion sequence for specifically inserting a sequence of interest and an insulator sequence". Claims 8 to 12 should be deleted. The words (expression) "described in claim 12" which appears on Claim 13 should be amended as "described in any of claims 1 to 7". Claims 15 and 16 should be deleted. The words (expression) "a functional sequence" which appears on Claim 17 should be amended as "an insertion sequence for specifically inserting a sequence of interest and an insulator sequence". The words (expression) "a functional sequence" which appears on Claim 18 should be amended as “an insertion sequence for specifically inserting a sequence of interest and an insulator sequence”. Claims 19 to 22 should be deleted. The words (expression) “a functional sequence” which appears on Claim 23 should be amended as “an insertion sequence for specifically inserting a sequence of interest and an insulator sequence”. The words (expression) “a functional sequence” which appears on Claim 24 should be amended as “an insertion sequence for specifically inserting a sequence of interest and an insulator sequence”. Claim 30 should be deleted. The words (expression) “a functional sequence” which appears on Claim 35 should be amended as “an insertion sequence for specifically inserting a sequence of interest and an insulator sequence”. The words (expression) “a functional sequence” which appears on Claim 36 should be amended as “an insertion sequence for specifically inserting a sequence of interest and an insulator sequence”. The words (expression) “a functional sequence” which appears on Claim 37 should be amended as “an insertion sequence for specifically inserting a sequence of interest and an insulator sequence”. The words (expression) “a functional sequence” which appears on Claim 38 should be amended as “an insertion sequence for specifically inserting a sequence of interest and an insulator sequence”. Claims 46 to 49 should be deleted. Claim 51 should be deleted. Claim 53 should be deleted. Claim 55 should be deleted. Page 79 should be deleted.
